Ike Flies Back To Washington Today For Xmas With His Family

President Eisenhower closed his official headquarters here today and took off for Washington in his twin-engine Aero Commander at 12:18 p.m. Mrs. Eisenhower will drive to Washington later this afternoon.

James C. Hagerty, press secretary, told newsmen that the President's decision was dictated solely by the desire of Mrs. Eisenhower to get back to the White House a day early to complete preparations for the family's observance of Christmas. They had planned originally to return to Washington tomorrow.

Uncertainty still surrounds the President's plans to spend more time in a warm climate as prescribed by his physicians. Hagerty said today that Augusta, Ga., is still under consideration, but that a number of other warm weather spots have not been ruled out. On Saturday Dr. Paul Dudley White, Boston heart expert, pointed out that the President needed a warmer climate in order to get the required exercise. There has been no announcement when the President will make his southern trip.

May Delay Trip
The general impression is that Eisenhower will delay his trip until after the arrival of the new child for Major and Mrs. John Eisenhower. His other three grandchildren will spend Christmas at the White House.

The only official caller today was Dillon Anderson, special assistant to the President for national security measures. They met at the farm. Later today Eisenhower was scheduled to meet Secretary of State Dulles, who reported to him Monday by long distance telephone on the results of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council meeting in Paris.

Hagerty indicated that a press conference would be held later today in Washington if activities warranted such a meeting.

The Salome Stewart Tent, 55, will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the GAR Post Room, E. Middle St. Mrs. Roy E. Coldsmith, president, will preside.

Lions Are Hosts To Sons And Daughters

Two hundred five Gettysburg Lions and their sons and daughters attended the club's annual Christmas party Monday evening at St. James Lutheran Church where they enjoyed a turkey dinner, Christmas songs, an exhibition of magic and a visit from Santa Claus.

Paul Grove led the singing of Christmas songs with Harold Eckert at the piano. John Crow, chairman of the program committee, introduced Gerry Wentz who entertained with feats of magic and then Santa Claus arrived to distribute candy and oranges to the children.

President Earl E. Ziegler presided and announced that the club will not meet again until January 9.

FRANK L. PITZER DIES MONDAY IN PHILADELPHIA

Frank L. Pitzer, aged about 51 years, 27 Steinwehr Ave., one of the builders and former operators of the Battlefield Service Station at the intersection of Baltimore St. and Steinwehr Ave., died Monday evening in the University of Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia.

Death followed an illness of about 10 months. He had been admitted there last Friday.

Mr. Pitzer was born on Steinwehr Ave., a son of the late Levi and Emma K. Pitzer, and lived all his life here. He worked for a number of years at the Gettysburg Steam Laundry while it was operated by C. Ray Rupp. During World War II he was employed for some time by the Glenn L. Martin company at Baltimore.

About 10 years ago, Mr. Pitzer and A. V. Knox bought the former Battlefield Hotel property, razed the old building and erected the service station on that site. Pitzer and his brother, David, operated the station until last summer when they sold the establishment.

The survivors include his widow, the former Relda Mummet, and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. Carrie Whitman, Gettysburg R. 2; John T. Pitzer, 503 W. Middle St.; David, Fairfield Rd., and Dale, Detroit, Mich.

Funeral arrangements are being made by the Peters Funeral Home but are incomplete.

PRAYER WEEK SERVICES WILL BEGIN ON JAN. 1

Arrangements for the annual Week of Prayer services to be held in local Protestant churches beginning Sunday, January 1, and continuing through Friday evening of that week were announced following a meeting of the Gettysburg Ministerium Sunday evening. The local pastors met in the college campus home of the Rev. Edwirth E. Korte, college chaplain.

"The Apostles Creed" will be the theme for the series of six services.

The schedule for the services and the theme for each evening follows with all services to be held at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, January 1, Presbyterian Church, with Chaplain Korte speaking on "God, the Father and Creator."

Monday, Episcopal Church, with the Rev. Clyde R. Brown, Presbyterian pastor, speaking on "Jesus Christ, Incarnate, Crucified, Risen."

Tuesday, Methodist Church, with the Rev. Herman G. Stumpfle Jr., pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, speaking on "He Shall Come."

Wednesday, Christ Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Martin Knutsen, rector of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, speaking on "The Holy Spirit."

Thursday, Baptist Church, with the Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church, speaking on "The Holy Catholic Church."

Friday, Reformed Church, with the Rev. Robert Knechel, pastor of the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren, speaking on "The Resurrection and the Life Everlasting."

PRESIDENT IS GIVEN 6 STEAKS FROM 4-H STEERS

President Dwight D. Eisenhower this morning received six of the county's finest steaks — cut from steers raised by 4-H Baby Beef Club members.

The two-inch-thick steaks were given to General Arthur S. Nevins for presentation to the President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Associate County Agent Fred H. Attinger, at whose suggestion the presentation was made, said the idea originated with the 4-H youngsters who wanted "Adams county's first farmer" to get an idea of just how good the county's young people are in beef raising — 4-H variety.

The steaks came from Hereford steers raised by Ronald Shank, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shank, Hanover R. 4, and Martha Zepp, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Zepp, Gettysburg R. 4. Shank's 930-pound steer placed eighth in the light heavyweight class at the recent regional 4-H Baby Beef show at Lancaster. Miss Zepp's 975-pound entry placed eleventh in the light middleweight class at the same show.

Both of the animals were brought here a year ago from Colorado. Harry Scott, Gettysburg R. D., went to Colorado to make purchases for many of the county 4-H youngsters.

Hagerty Closes Press Room; Reporters Return To Capital

For the first time in a month the auditorium of the Hotel Gettysburg is quiet. At 11:15 o'clock this morning James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, officially "closed shop" on the first series of press conferences ever held in Gettysburg.

Almost immediately reporters were busy filing final stories, gathering notes in brief cases, and getting photographic equipment into cars for the haul back to Washington where President Eisenhower will spend the holidays. By press time today the press headquarters were almost deserted — for the first time since the President's arrival here on November 14.

Distinguished Visitors
In the past month Gettysburg has been a mecca for government officials of all kinds, here to consult with the President at his farm or at his official working quarters in the post office. During all that time Gettysburg has been the "capital of the United States."

Among the distinguished visitors have been Secretary of State John Foster Dulles; Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks; Sherman Adams, special presidential assistant; Allan Dulles, CIA chief; Herbert Hoover Jr., undersecretary of state; Dillon Anderson, special presidential assistant; Lewis Strauss, head of AEC; General Alfred Gruenther; A. J. Byrnes and Paul Mish, of the White House staff; Dr. Howard Snyder; Dr. Thomas W. Mattingly; Dr. Paul Dudley White; Col. Andrew Goodpaster; Leonard Hall, GOP chairman; Budget Director Rowland Hughes; Senator Knowland, and a host of others.

Here, too, the President settled his budgetary matters and prepared his State of the Union address. The Christmas season was officially opened by Mr. Eisenhower on Sunday at 5 o'clock from the office of the president at Gettysburg College when he pushed the button that lit the tree at the nation's capital and elsewhere.

EPISCOPALIANS PLAN SERVICE CHRISTMAS EVE

A program of Christmas religious music will feature the Christmas Eve service to be held at the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church starting at 11 o'clock Saturday evening.

Harry F. Bolich will direct the choir. Mrs. A. Z. Rogers will be the organist.

Included on the program will be the following:

Organ prelude, "Christmas Pastoral," Giuseppe Dinelli; carols, "Green Sleeves," "In Dulci Jubilo," "Venite Adoremus," and "The First Noel," by the choir; "Gesu Bambino," Pietro Yon, alto solo by Mrs. Guyon Buehler; anthem, "He Shall Reign Forever," Caleb Simper; organ postlude, "Chant Du Roi Rene," Alex Guilmant.

Hymns which will be sung during the service include "Adeste Fideles," "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear," "O Little Town Of Bethlehem," "Silent Night, Holy Night" and "Angels We Have Heard On High."

LOCAL PLANTS TO GIVE BONUS

The Gettysburg Furniture Factories will distribute their traditional Christmas gift to their employees on Friday, S. Richard Lemberg, general manager announced today.

Mr. Lemberg said, "that payment of a bonus again this year is only possible because of the fact that the companies have had a good year's operation the direct result of the productive and service department workers, the supervisors, the sales force and management."

He commended each employee on the part they as individuals played on the company team during the past year. Mr. Lemberg stated in addition that the factories will close for the Christmas holiday at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon and reopen Tuesday morning at the usual time.

The following week the factories will close for the New Year's holiday on Friday, December 30. Work will be resumed the following Tuesday morning.

MOORE SPEAKS FOR ROTARIANS LADIES' NIGHT

"When we give up the risk of doing, we give up the privilege of doing," Franklin Moore, manager of the Penn Harris Hotel, Harrisburg, told the local Rotary Club at a Ladies' Night Christmas party Monday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Describing a meeting in Washington which he attended as president of the Inter-American Hotel Association, he observed "I thought as the representatives of 14 countries gathered around the table for this meeting arranged by the Organizations of American States that 25 years ago this would not be possible. The things we were talking about would not have been considered within the province of the government of the United States 25 years ago."

"I visited Paris as vice president of the International Hotel Association, representing 52 countries of the free world. And I saw there empty buildings, while there was a tremendous need for housing. I asked why and was told that rent control kept control kept rents so low that the owners could not pay the taxes on the buildings and so abandoned them."

What Lincoln Forgot
"In Peru a hotel manager proudly told me his salary had been advanced in 15 years from 200 pesos to 1,200 pesos. But I knew that he could buy more with the 200 pesos than the 1,200 and so I learned something about inflation."

"A friend lent me a book 'The Rights of the American People' written by a Japanese while teaching at Harvard in 1906. I can go page by page and strike out the things that then were true, but are no longer true, because the government now can do them. We were the first free people in 7,000 years because of the American constitution."

"Lincoln's Gettysburg Address is a far cry of freedom. This country of ours was different. But Lincoln forgot that government of, by and for the people is only as good as the people."

World Wants Peace
"No matter how much time we may have to study we will never encompass all of the lessons taught from the Nativity to Easter Morning. Everything that Christ said and did has something in it about the divine prerogatives of man. And much of that teaching was the basis for our American Constitution and Bill of Rights."

"That was the reason the Constitution lasted as long as it did. It was founded on those basic principles, the principles of freedom without which no man can live to the fullest."

Moore said his experience with people throughout the world, "led me to believe that all people seek peace. After World War I I was in the army of occupation in Germany. I found that those people against

Couple Observing 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heck, Gettysburg R. 1, are observing their 50th wedding anniversary today at their home without special celebration. Mr. Heck is a farmer and for many years has conducted a butchering business, operating a delivery route with a horse-drawn wagon.

The couple was married in the parsonage of Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church here by the late Rev. T. J. Barkley. Mr. Heck is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heck. Mrs. Heck is the former Ella Stultz, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stultz.

GIRL SCOUTS IN CAROL SING ON LINCOLN SQUARE

Approximately 300 Girl Scouts from Arendtsville, Biglerville, Cashtown, Hampton, Gettysburg and New Oxford took part Monday evening in the annual caroling on Lincoln Square in front of the Hotel Gettysburg.

Mrs. L. C. Hamme directed the singing for the half hour program which was broadcast over WGET. Parker H. Cunningham, manager of WGET, was master of ceremonies.

Traditional carols were sung by the group. The Brownies sang "Jolly, Jolly Santa Claus" and "Up on a House Top" as special numbers. Intermediate Troops 3 and 21, of Gettysburg, sang as a special number the spiritual, "Go Tell It on the Mountains." The parts of the Kings in "We Three Kings of Orient Are" were sung by Dorothy Durboraw, Drucilla Deitch and Delores Adams, all of Troop 3.

Dedicated To First Lady
The program was dedicated to Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, national honorary president of the Girl Scouts. Mrs. Leroy Sheads presented a copy of a letter from Mrs. Eisenhower expressing her thanks for a picture of the Girl Scout float which won a prize for the county scouts in the Battle Anniversary parade last June. PLANK JAILED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT ORDER

Raymond C. Plank, Gettysburg R. 3, was found guilty of contempt Monday afternoon by the Adams County court and sentenced to 60 days in jail for failure to keep up his payments on a support order.

Herman Jones, Harrisburg, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for one year on a charge of issuing two bad checks, totalling $35, to the American Legion here. He had just completed 8½ months in jail on somewhat similar charges in other counties. A Harrisburg church has sent a check, covering the reimbursement for the bad checks plus most of the costs, and the court said that in the light of the time Jones had already spent in jail and "the confidence his church has in him" sentence here would be suspended.

George W. Miller, Littlestown R. 1, was found guilty on a surety of the peace charge brought against him by his wife and ordered to post $1,000 bond to keep the peace and pay the costs. Mrs. Miller resides in an apartment on Chambersburg St., which she said Miller had entered a number of times, at least once through a bathroom window.

Feared Threats
Mrs. Miller related that she feared for her life because of threats made. Miller said any such remarks were made jokingly and that he wouldn't harm anyone. The court told him it was sure his actions were only meant to get his wife to return, but that he would have to change his methods of seeking to effect a reconciliation.

Charles Florey, 22, Gettysburg, serving six months on a bad check charge, was placed on parole for six months and directed to make regular payments on costs and restitution during that period.

John McGlaughlin, Gettysburg, serving six months on charges of larceny of a motor vehicle and carrying a concealed weapon, was placed on parole for one year.

Parole For Mathews
Glenn Mathews, McSherrytown, serving an 18 months sentence on three charges, was placed on parole

King Dissolves Parliament Of Jordan To Break Riots

JERUSALEM (AP)—King Hussein has dissolved Jordan's Parliament in a drastic move to end riots against linking the Arab country to the Baghdad Pact. The mounting violence meanwhile brought a curfew to Bethlehem, readying it for the annual Christmas pilgrimage.

The dissolution yesterday automatically toppled Premier Hazza El Majali's government for the second Cabinet crisis in less than a week. Premier Said El Mufli resigned last Wednesday after Britain offered to supply Jordan with new heavy arms and jet fighters if the country would join the five-power Baghdad Pact.

The king did not immediately announce a date for elections for a new Parliament.

In Defense Grouping
The Baghdad alliance is a Western-backed defense grouping including Britain, Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, and Turkey. The proposal to include Jordan stirred frenzied resentment among Jordanians who feared it might mean abandoning the country's claims against Israel.

The 4 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew for Jordan-held Bethlehem — Christ's birthplace — was ordered after 200 to 300 demonstrators stormed the Turkish consulate in the Jordan sector of Jerusalem, burning the Turkish flag and wounding the consul general. Four rioters were reported killed and 27 wounded by fire from Jordanian troops.

The curfew obviously was a safety measure to protect Christian pilgrims, particularly those from the West, who flock to the scene of the Nativity only five miles southwest of Jerusalem. It was not clear what effect the curfew would have on the traditional Christmas Eve services there.

Stirs Mounting Tension
The curfew could be lifted before

Christmas In Greece

"Christmas in Greece is getting to be more Americanized every day," according to Nick Melikakes, proprietor of the Plaza Restaurant. "Just the other day I received some Christmas cards from Greece, and I, in turn, sent some to my relatives there. In the old days such a custom didn't exist in Greece."

"Since the war things in most of European countries are beginning to be patterned after the American way of life. The world is growing smaller and smaller, and countries now are adopting one another's customs and manners."

As far as Mr. Melikakes remembers of his youth spent in Greece, Christmas was mainly a religious holiday. There were no Christmas trees, hanging of the greens or St. Nicholas who showered the children with gifts. Gifts were given to children on St. Basil's Day (which falls the same day as our New Year's Day). On this day it is the custom of the older generation to give the young ones money. Sometimes the money is given in return for a serenade of Christmas songs. Nick compared St. Basil's Day and the festive activities to the American "tricks or treats" of Halloween.

Pork Is Special Dish
Prior to the Christmas feast there is what Nick called a kind of Lent, or what is called in some churches, the Advent. This is a period of fasting and purification before a great religious holiday. On Christmas Day there is a special service in the church for all members of the family. As for Christmas dinner, there are few turkeys around. The fowl is great delicacy in Greece.

Mrs. J. Lazos, of Gettysburg, says that Christmas celebrating in Greece extends over a two or three-day period of visiting, rejoicing and eating. Every family in Greece, from the richest to the poorest, kills a hog two days before Christmas. According to the custom, says Mrs. Lazos, after the hog hangs for two days, it is cut into sections, cooked and eaten for the celebration. All the shops and places of business close for several days while people enjoy the celebration, the eating and social visits to friends and relatives. Later the remainder of the hog is butchered and sausages are made to be eaten during the year.

Eight Killed In Jet Collision; Sabre Jet Smashes Bomber

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four Air Force planes collided in two separate accidents over Florida yesterday and brought death to 11 airmen. Three other airmen were missing.

Eight men died when two B47 jet bombers collided over the outskirts of Tampa. A flaming wreckage showered the countryside. One of the planes was from MacDill Air Force Base at Tampa and the other from Pinecastle AFB near Orlando.

A few hours later a F86D Sabre jet smashed into a B29 bomber in the air over Port St. Joe, about 200 miles up the Florida west coast, and killed three fliers. Three others were missing. Both planes were from Tyndall AFB at Panama City, Fla.

Fall Near Trailer Park
The Tampa planes fell dangerously close to a trailer park. Terrified residents said they thought an earthquake had struck. One plane exploded on contact and the other seconds later.

Spokesmen said the accident apparently occurred when the MacDill plane was having trouble with its landing gear and the Pinecastle craft flew underneath to take a look. This is often done.

Then both must have hit a down-draft, causing them to collide. Two crewmen tried to jump to safety, but their chutes failed to open in the short space to the ground.

Sets Thicket Afire
The wreckage fell about half a mile from the trailer park and set fire to a pine thicket. Thirteen children were left fatherless in the holiday season tragedy.

A portion of the B29 bomber wreckage fell about five miles west of Port St. Joe, on busy U.S. 98, and barely missed a dozen beach houses.

"The planes collided with a very bright flash that lit up the sky," said Highway Patrolman Clyde Leroy Pfeiffer. "After the first explosion, they separated into two smaller balls of fire, then they exploded again."

Falls On Highway
"The main part of the B29 fell on the highway. A smaller part fell in the water just off from the beach and the main part of the

2 INJURED WHEN TRUCK UPSETS; DAMAGE $2,500

Two men were injured and damage totaled $2,500 when a Duquesne Brewing Co. truck, enroute from the plant at Pittsburgh to the Hanover Bottling Works at Hanover upset off the Lincoln Highway two-tenths of a mile west of here at 7:10 o'clock this morning.

Milan N. Wojnovich, 42, Pittsburgh, driver of the truck, said the vehicle ran off the right side of the highway and he was unable to turn it back before the stake body truck rolled down an embankment.

Wojnovich suffered a contusion of the right shoulder, brush burns of the knee, abrasions of the back of the head, fracture of the right collar bone and contusions below both knees.

Companion Injured
A companion in the truck, Frederick Bender, 56, Pittsburgh, suffered fractures of four ribs on the right side, a contusion of the right upper arm, a laceration behind the right ear and lacerations of the right knee.

The 400 cases of beer and ten half-barrels on the truck were hurled from the truck.

Wojnovich and Bender were pinned briefly in the cab and the Gettysburg Fire Department rescue squad was called, but their services were not needed in extricating the two and removing them to the Warner Hospital for treatment.

The truck was demolished.

ALL OFFICERS RE-ELECTED BY SCHOOL BOARDS

The Fairfield Joint School System held its annual reorganization meeting Monday evening at the high school, and re-elected all officers of the joint and local boards.

The joint board paid its annual $34,000 rental to the Fairfield School Authority. There had been some discussion prior to the meeting concerning the possibility of withholding the reserve amount included in the rental because of the tightening economic situation brought about by the failure of the state to levy taxes and pay its share of the school costs. The last payments received from the state were made last March.

However, the boards decided to pay the full amount of rental plus reserve with the hope that the state will reach some solution within a month or six weeks.

C. A. Willis, Fairfield, was re-elected president of the Fairfield joint school board. Joseph Lowe, Liberty Twp., was re-elected vice president. Hamilton Twp. named Ira Walter as president and Howard Diehl vice president; Fairfield, John Reinhold as president and J. B. Wadde, vice president.

In Liberty Twp. W. F. Sites was named as president and Russel Hull, vice president.

PAUL S. HERRICK IS BURIED TODAY

Mercury Dips To 33 Below

By The Associated Press
The coldest weather of the season, with temperatures plunging as far as 33 below zero, stung the East today.

It was the same old, cold story in the central section of the nation—still by but not as bone chilling as Monday.

Polar air surged into the East. Temperatures toppled.

Mt. Washington, N. H., had —33. The lowest official overnight reading in New York State was —23 at Lowville, south of Watertown in the northern part of the state.

Watertown had —17.

An unofficial reading of —28 was reported near Herkimer in central New York and at Bloomingdale near Saranac Lake, Uta had —14, Syracuse —6 and Albany —4.

The freeze was on farther north. Boston's 8 above was the coldest since Feb. 3. Temperatures fell to —6 at Pittsfield, Mass., to —16 at Greenfield, Mass., and Newport, Vt.

MISS BAUGHER, RICHARD FOLK WED IN ASPERS

Miss Lucy Mae Baugher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Baugher, Aspers, became the bride of Richard Karl Folk, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Folk, Harrisburg, Sunday at 3 p.m. in Christ Lutheran Church, Aspers. The Rev. Dr. O. D.

MRS. R. K. FOLK

Coble officiated at a double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Coble gave a 20-minute organ recital preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Clarence J. Miller accompanied the soloist, Herman W. Folk, Harrisburg.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an egg shell gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The basque bodice was fashioned with a each neckline embroidered in pearls. The sleeves were long and the bouffant skirt was of tulle and lace. Her veil of tulle and lace was attached to a satin Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses. Matron of honor was Mrs. William Beachtel, Manheim, who wore a ballerina-length gown of ice blue embroidered with a matching headpiece. The bridesmaids were Miss Lean Kann, Carlisle, and Miss Joyce Ripley, Aspers, cousin of the bride. Both wore powder blue gowns of embroidered crystal with matching headpieces. The flower girls were Miss Ann Brough, Aspers, and Miss Sue Baugher, Washington, D. C., nieces of the bride. Both wore ice pink crystal-like gowns. All the attendants carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and rosebuds. The best man was James Mincher, Trop, N. Y.

A reception was held in the social room of the church immediately following the ceremony. The church and social room were decorated with greens, holly and white pompons. Following the reception the couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. For a going away costume, the bride wore a heather-blue suit, navy blue accessories and a corsage of white roses. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The bride was graduated from Biglerville High School in 1952 and will graduate from Elizabethtown College in June, 1956. The bridegroom was graduated from John Harris High School in 1947. ## P. O. SERVICE HAS 'NEW LOOK' FOR 1955 RUSH

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today that this 1955 "new look" holiday mail season is the biggest in the Post Office Department's history.

The "new look" consists of services and speed never available before for many millions of pieces of holiday mail.

It also includes a free pamphlet, now available, showing the public how to avoid pitfalls of Christmas mailing.

Biggest On Record
This is the biggest Christmas mail season of record, with more mail handled than ever before, latest reports indicate.

During the quarter ending December 31, 1955, it is estimated more than 17 billion pieces of mail will have been carried — more than 300 pieces, on the average, for every family in America.

This month alone deliveries are expected totalling about 7 1/3 billion, about 2 1/2 billion above a normal month this year.

New Services
Services available this Christmas for the first time include Certified and Combination mail. Certified mail may be used to send gift certificates, savings bonds and the like, and proof of delivery is available to the sender. Combination mail may be used to mail a letter or message inside a package or publication.

For example, a personal letter may be mailed inside the parcel post package being sent to Aunt Jane, after payment of appropriate postage for both the parcel and the letter inside. Available free from post offices is a pamphlet called "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels for Mailing."

Littlestown

LITTLESTOWN: Judging for the Christmas lighting and decorating contest in Littlestown will take place on Wednesday evening. The contest is being sponsored by the local Jaycees chapter, and three out-of-town judges will choose the winners in three decorating categories: Entire house, doors and windows, and special features. Three cash prizes are being offered in each category, first, $15, second, $10, and third, $5. The committee for the project consists of Richard Selby, chairman, Wilbur M. Sentz, Emerson F. Muller, Charles R. Everhart Jr. and Albert J. Blair.

Mrs. M. L. Wendler, Hanover will be the guest speaker at the December meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity on Wednesday at 7:45 p.m., in the POS of A Hall. Members are asked to bring items for the Christmas welfare baskets to the meeting. A Christmas party will be featured during the social hour, and gifts will be exchanged. Mrs. Luther W. Ritter is chairman of this month's program committee, and Mrs. John F. Feeser Jr. is chairman of the hostess committee.

A Christmas party will follow the business meeting of Littlestown Castle 31, AOK of MC on Thursday at 7:30 p.m., in the lodge rooms on E. King St. Each member is asked to take an inexpensive gift for exchange.

The Littlestown telephone operators enjoyed their annual Christmas party on Monday night, in the office on S. Queen St. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served. Those present were Mrs. Hilda Bish, Mrs. Katherine Long, Mrs. Betty Geisler, Mrs. Betty Kress, Mrs. Mary Lou Wege, Mrs. Mary Ruggles, Mrs. Henrietta Palmer, Miss Shirley Weikert, Miss Nancy Crabbs, Mrs. Shirley Showaker, Mrs. Mildred Danner and Mrs. Mabel Eby.

Miss Lou Etta Miller, daughter of Mrs. Minnie S. Miller, W. King St., and a student at Millersville State Teachers College, is spending the holiday vacation at her home.

Charles Badders, a student at the Kutztown State Teachers College, is enjoying the Christmas vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Badders, Lumbert St.

"THE HOLIDAY MOOD"

Every year in late December . . . weary hearts begin to sing . . . for it's very close to Christmas . . . and the joy that it will bring . . . people who were prone to frowning . . . wear a tender glowing smile . . . for the spirit of the season . . . makes this life seem so worthwhile . . . laughter takes the place of crying . . . love replaces doubt and fear . . . and all of this is just because . . . the holiday is near . . . young and old share the excitement . . . everyone feels some delight . . . holly wreaths enhance our vision . . . and sweet carols spray the night . . . yes, each year in late December . . . there's a peaceful interlude . . . of friendliness and brotherhood . . . creating the holiday mood.

at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ Church, on Sunday evening. The program included: Song service, Mrs. Harold E. Shoemaker, accompanist; Scripture, Raymond Hilker; prayer, Mervin K. Myers; piano solo, "Star of the East," Gary Stevig; poem, "What Does Christmas Mean?" Mary Jane Arentz; vocal solo, "O Holy Night," Mrs. Richard Barnes, accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy W. Berwager; reading, "Symbolism of the Christmas Tree," George D. Koons; topic discussion, "Because Christ Came," Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor. Shirley Gerrick, president, presided.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie 2226 will hold its December birthday party on Wednesday evening, leaving at 6 o'clock from the FOE Home.

Junior and Senior High Youth Fellowship counselors of Redeemer's Reformed Church will meet on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the parsonage.

The Women's Missionary Society of St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, presented a Christmas play on Friday evening in the church with Rev. William A. Ellsworth Jr., pastor of the Reformed congregation, in charge of the presentation. Participating in the play were Mrs. William A. Ellsworth Jr., Mrs. Percell Worley, Mrs. Merle Bittle, Mrs. Ray V. Reichart, Mrs. Roscoe Klinefelter, Mrs. Samuel J. Snyder, Mrs. Claude Flickinger, Mrs. John H. Hartlaub, Mrs. Parr R. Breighner, Harry Breighner, Jeffrey Breighner, Edward Reichart and Fred Hartlaub. During the play, carols were sung by the choir, accompanied by Mrs. James Reichart.

The business session of the society followed the play, when election of officers took place. The new officers are: President, Mrs. Guy McCabe; first vice president, Mrs. Roscoe Klinefelter; second vice president, Mrs. Merle Bittle; secretary, Mrs. Parr Breighner; treasurer from the Lutheran congregation, Mrs. Claude Flickinger; treasurer from the Reformed congregation, Mrs. John H. President Eisenhower looks from the window of his twin-engine Aero Commander just before leaving the Gettysburg airport at 12:18 o'clock today for Christmas in Washington. Mrs. Eisenhower will motor to the White House this afternoon.

24 Absent House Members May Face Contempt Action

HARRISBURG (AP)—Twenty-four House members are under orders to present legitimate reasons for their unexcused absence or face possible contempt action.

The House clerk was ordered to question the 7 Democrats and 17 Republicans after a quorum call in the House last night showed they were not present and had not been excused.

"If some members choose not to come in for some flimsy reason I promptly will move to hold them in contempt," Rep. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, said after the session.

Dems Five Short

Once again the Democratic majority of 112 members did not have the 106 present which is necessary to pass legislation. There were 101 Democrats answering the roll call.

Readinger said he was ready to ask for contempt action because "it could keep on going this way and we'd be in session forever."

Whether such action is made effective is up to a majority of the House itself.

Two Adequate Reasons
Speaker Andrews (D-Cambria), who also has complained of the lack of a Democratic majority on various occasions, said that as far as he is concerned the only adequate reason for absence was death in the family or a doctor's certificate of illness.

Action on several administration bills, pending for some time, was held up again yesterday by the Democratic absenteeism. Democrats mustered a majority on Dec. 12 for the first time since Nov. 23 when the manufacturers excise tax was voted upon.

INTRODUCE AGE BILL

HARRISBURG (AP)— Under a Democratic-sponsored bill introduced in the Senate last night, job discrimination because of age would not be contrary to the fair employment practices law which also prohibits discrimination in employment because of race, color, creed or national origin. These are already in effect. The bill was sponsored by Sens. Seyler (D-York), Silveri (D-Phila.) and Schmidt (D-Allegheny).

Resigns As President Of Democratic Club

Mrs. S. C. Ballard resigned as president of the Adams County Democratic Women's Club it was announced at a meeting of the organization Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Laura Cratin, 527 Main St., McSherrystown. Mrs. Ballard will leave the state in February. Her resignation becomes effective immediately.

Mrs. Evelyn Chrismer, vice president, Mrs. Norma Moore, secretary, will become president January 1. The club donated $5 to the Gettysburg Christmas street lighting fund. Plans were made to hold a rummage sale January 21. Gifts were exchanged and games played. Refreshments were served. The group will meet again January 16.

Will Hold Christmas Party On Wednesday

United Steelworkers of America Local 4978 will hold its third annual Christmas party Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Moose Lodge for members and their families. The committee on arrangements is headed by Charles R. Moser, president. The program will include group singing, refreshments, entertainment. Santa Claus will pass out gifts and a treat to each child under 14.

Elks Will Hold Kiddies' Party

PLANK JAILED

for one year and given three months to pay costs.

Floyd Clapper, Rockville, Md., in jail since October 6 for contempt of court, after failing to keep up a support order, was released with instruction that he must keep up current payments and pay something each pay day period toward the arrearage and costs.

Settlement of a trespass action brought by Maureen V. (Murray) Cleveland, Gettysburg R. D., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Murray, against John Epley, Gettysburg R. 1, was indicated by testimony given in court Monday. The settlement will be for $1,541.55, of which about $400 will go for medical and other costs. The action was brought as a result of an accident on the Littlestown road near Banker's restaurant.

Appeal Petition

The petition for allowance of an appeal brought by Jacob M. Albright, Hanover R. 5, was continued to January 7.

Junior E. Myers, Hampton, testifying in a desertion and non-support case, listed an imposing amount of costs for payments on his car, payments to a garage and payments on a debt owing on a prior car. He claimed his wife did not properly care for their two children.

Myers was ordered to pay $30 per week for the support of his wife and children, post a $500 bond on his recognizance and pay the costs.

Support Case

John L. Rhea, E. Middle St., was ordered to pay $12 per week for the support of his wife and one child, following a support order. He was also directed to post $500 bond on his recognizance and pay the costs.

William J. Gillan, Chambersburg undertaker, told of spending approximately $8,000 this year while having an income of about $1,700, $900 of that amount from one funeral he conducted during the year and the remainder from working in an orchard. He sought a reduction in the $25 per week support order under which he has been placed by the Adams County court. The court held a reduction in the order would not be a permanent solution and reserved decision while Adams County Probation Officer D. M. Anderson contacts Franklin County officials where Gillan is under a support order for two children to his first wife, and discusses with Gillan himself the possible amounts he can pay.

Duane L. Mitzell, Red Lion R. 3, was found innocent of a charge of reckless driving following a hearing before the court and the costs of the case were placed on the county. Mitzell, charged after an accident by state police, had waived a hearing before a justice of the peace.

Other Support Cases

A hearing on a petition of Jesse Jenkins, Taneytown R. 2, to terminate a support order was continued to January 13.

The support order of Joseph F. McSherry, McSherrystown, was reduced to $10 per week for two children following a hearing. He was told an arrearage on his payments was remitted and he was directed to pay the costs.

Robert I. Crum, Biglerville R. 12, was directed to return January 13, on a support matter. He was reported $80 in arrears.

Reds Release Missionaries Suffering From Malnutrition, Fear And Mental Breakdown

By DAVID J. ROADS

HONG KONG (AP)—Dr. and Mrs. Homer V. Bradshaw, American medical missionaries in China for nearly 20 years and prisoners of the Communists for nearly five, crossed the Hong Kong border to freedom today.

Mrs. Bradshaw appeared to be suffering from acute malnutrition and a mental breakdown.

"She doesn't realize even now that she is in free territory," the Presbyterian doctor told newsmen a half hour after an ambulance brought him and his wife to St. Teresa's Hospital from the frontier bridge on the mainland.

Food Parcels Helped
Dr. Bradshaw said he himself had been subjected to slow starvation and suffered a complete physical breakdown last May but Red Cross food parcels he began receiving the next month helped him to recover partially.

He added that he plans to take his wife as soon as possible to her father's farm near Pittsburgh, Pa. "If we can get this fear out of her," he said, "she will start to eat again and slowly get her physical strength back."

In China Since 1928

The Bradshaws, natives of Pittsburgh, Pa., and medical missionaries in China since 1928, reached the border of this British crown colony aboard the daily train from Canton. An ambulance brought them to a Hong Kong hospital.

Newsmen were shocked by Mrs. Bradshaw's pitiable condition as she turned a blank stare to their questions.

Dr. Bradshaw had been in prison—first in Kwangtung and then in Canton—since their arrest in March, 1951, but his wife was transferred to house arrest in Canton when she became ill in 1953. The Chinese never made public any charges against them but the doctor said he was told last October they were accused of spying.

13 Americans Still Held

With the emergence of the Bradshaws from behind the Bamboo Curtain, 13 other Americans whom the Chinese had promised to free "expeditiously" were believed still in Red prisons.

Half an hour after his arrival at the hospital, Dr. Bradshaw came down to the waiting room looking much refreshed. He joked with newsmen as movie cameramen ground away.

The doctor said he and his wife were separated March 3, 1951, the day after their arrest at their hospital home in Kwangtung Province. He saw her again briefly—but could not talk to her—when they were brought to Canton the next January, and then did not see her for almost four years, until they were reunited two days ago.

Wife Doesn't Realize Anything

At their reunion, he continued, "she recognized me and there were tears in her eyes. But she doesn't realize even now that she is in free territory. She doesn't realize anything."

"She was officially released on Nov. 7, 1955, but when I saw her last Sunday she didn't realize that she had been released."

Dr. Bradshaw said he was not told until last October that they were accused of espionage — of maintaining radio contact with stations in Hong Kong, Manila, Tokyo and the United States.

"I took quite a number of rolls of movie film during my 20 years in China," he added. "This was supposed to be espionage."

In 1952, he went on, the Communists hinted that he would be released fairly soon if he admitted that he was a spy posing as a missionary.

He said he was not ill-treated after he refused to sign any such statement, but he was handcuffed for two days at one stage and "roughly manhandled" on another occasion.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

General Local Jottings: Last harvest Parker Day, Huntington TWP., lost his gold watch while mowing wheat. Last week the time piece was found by Ollie Thumma.

The recent sale of Addison Leet, near Hunterstown, amounted to $2,720. One pair of horses sold for $342.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Mae, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Grogg, of Littlestown, to Prof. A. M. Jacobs, principal of the Juniata schools, ceremony to take place at the home of her parents, Dec. 28th.

Leander Myers, of York Springs, sawed three cords of wood twice through and split it in eight hours.

A fine new organ has been placed in Lower Bermudian church.

Deaths And Funerals: S. Russell Hollabaugh died suddenly at his home at Hanover street at noon on Thursday, aged nearly 47 years.

Mr. Hollabaugh, as has been told in these columns previously, had been ill for some time, having been afflicted with a complication of diseases, principal of which was dropsy. He received the best of medical attention and was tenderly nursed by a devoted daughter and friends. He was treated for a time by specialists at a Baltimore hospital, but his disease was such that medical skill could not save him.

He held a clerkship in the Gettysburg post-office under the administration of the late Jacob A. Kitzmiller and John M. Kraitsir and for the past twenty years has been in the employ of Hon. W. H. Tipton, filling both positions with great credit. He was exceedingly popular and made friends with all with whom he came in contact. He was among the foremost members of the Methodist church and was always present at the services when health permitted.

White: Mrs. Martha Ann White, widow of John White, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nancy Gladhill, in the McPherson building, Thursday morning about 11 o'clock, after an illness of about ten days, aged 92 years and 1 day.

Deceased was a daughter of Victor M. McHenry and was born in Franklin township at the old McHenry homestead. She was united in marriage to John White, of the same vicinity. For a number of years after the death of her husband, which occurred 60 years ago, she lived in Gettysburg, and for the past four years lived with her daughter, Mrs. Gladhill.

Mrs. White is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Nancy Gladhill, of this place, and one brother King McHenry, of Seven Stars, and a number of grandchildren.

Baker: John Andrew Baker, who formerly resided in Gettysburg, departed this life, at the home of his nephew, Harry Topper, in Mountjoy township, on December 11, aged about 64 years. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. G. Minnick, on Dec. 13 and interment made in the National Cemetery.

The deceased was an ex-soldier, having served in the last Maryland regiment during the war of the rebellion. He is survived by one full brother — William Baker of near Emmitsburg, and the following half-brothers and sisters: Benjamin F. Baker, of Greencourt; Louis of Philadelphia; Harry, of Bridgeport, Md.; Cornelius, of Iowa; Mrs. Hankey, of Seven Stars; Mrs. Cameron Oiler, of near Emmitsburg, and Mrs. Robinson, this place.

Celebrated Golden Wedding: Dr. and Mrs. Milton Valentine celebrated their golden wedding at their beautiful home on Springs avenue on Monday. On that day fifty years ago Dr. Valentine was united in wedlock to Margaret G. Galt, at Taneytown, Md.

This aged couple are among Gettysburg's most honored citizens. They have spent the greater portion of their lives in our midst and have accomplished a noble work, the substance of which has been related in these columns previously.

The Doctor is among the most foremost educators of the land and as a clergyman and writer he has few equals. He was President

Today's Talk

EARTH POWER

We speak of the substance of the earth as just plain dirt, but when we do we miss the significance of the earth. It actually is the powerful, incomparable laboratory that God formed to care for all his creations, man, animals, and birds as well as millions of other lesser creatures.

From the soil come our grains, fruits, vegetables, trees, metals and precious stones. Each one is a miracle in itself. There is no other power so potent and valuable as earth power. It is the power upon which all our life and happiness depends. Miraculous as all our discoveries have been, as regards this earth, hidden away are perhaps billions of secrets about which we know nothing at the present time. What would inventors and scientists do without the knowledge gained from earth power?

This knowledge of earth power is what has enabled scientists to get wealth out of the air itself! The Creator wasn't satisfied merely to bring into being the earth itself. He formed the sun, the clouds, the snow, in fact our entire solar system that the earth might have food and drink for its substance. How very wonderful!

We can repeat, again and again, "What hath God wrought!" I marvel at the intelligence of birds and the small animals, so seemingly helpless in this big world, yet all appear happy and industrious. I watch the small birds and squirrels from my window, and they find food somehow. I marvel at them. I do not pity them, for they know more than I do about what keeps them alive and happy.

Man has done great things in harnessing the power of the earth and delving into its secrets. Who can guess how this new atomic energy is going to bless mankind? May it never curse the earth and mankind through suicidal war! All life ended everywhere would be the result. Let us contemplate the greater life ahead!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Outlets"

Just Folks

MACHINE AND MAN

The factory engine wouldn't start

And so they took the thing apart

To search for flaws.

They took it down from top to base;

They looked at flange and gear and case

To find the cause.

Something is broken, they declared,

And what it is must be repaired.

Nearly a drowsy workman stood,

And someone muttered: "He's no good!"

Just let him go!"

They didn't take that man apart

Or think to search his mind and heart

The cause to know.

Nobody thought to ask him why

There was no luster in his eye.

But had they looked into the gloom

Of what he called a sitting-room,

Or searched his life,

They would have found a woman frail,

Tubercular, and drawn and pale,

Who was his wife.

And then they might have understood

Why that man seemed to be no good.

When engines in a factory stop

We search the things from base to top;

But when man breaks,

'Tis very seldom that we pause

To search his life to find the cause

Of his mistakes.

Yet, we might mend him could we find

The thing that's preying on his mind.

Wedding Bells: The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bream, of near Fairfield, was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Dec. 6th, at 8 p.m.

The contracting parties were their and Ira O. Bieseker, of Orttanna.

The bride was attractively gowned in white and was attended by her friend, Miss Brown.

The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by Robt. Bream, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. C. L. Ritter, of Fairfield, and the wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Clara Musselman, of Fairfield.

Personal: Miss Daisy Long left last week for Lewistown where she will reside with her father, R. R. Long, who is conducting a steam laundry in that place.

LEADER SHOWS 'SHOCK' FILM ON MENTAL HEALTH

HARRISBURG (AP)—Feeble-minded children sprawled on the floor; barefoot men milled around a day room; old women fidgeted on benches.

The scenes were from a movie made during Gov. Leader's recent tour of mental institutions.

The motion pictures were shown to the General Assembly yesterday by the governor to demonstrate what he said was the need for more money for mental health expansion.

Crowd To Showing

House and Senate members crowded into the ornate House chamber for the showing—the first time the huge room had been used for such a visual demonstration.

It was a shock treatment which Sen. Holland (D-Allegheny) said should make both Republicans and Democrats "forget the almighty dollar and remember the poor people in mental institutions."

The governor made his appeal before the joint session for 26 million dollars in additional funds for mental health—mostly to alleviate the shortage of psychiatrists and trained nurses.

Agree To Increase

Two Republicans, Sens. Scott (Carbon) and Wagner (Schuylkill) both agreed that more money should be voted by the Legislature for mental health but wouldn't commit themselves on how much.

Leader noted in his appeal that the Legislature already has approved a plan to streamline the administration of the mental health program, adding:

"Now, you cannot hamstring what you have accomplished by withholding the funds to put the flesh of accomplishment upon the framework of purpose."

See Overcrowding

The chief executive said he saw "overcrowding, obsolescence and unimaginative custodial care in the mental institutions."

"Specifically," he said, "I ask you to avoid any impulsive curtailment in the 26 million dollar additional allocation I have asked this year for the Welfare Department to carry out its program."

"These funds are desperately required to get help for people who need it—for more doctors, more nurses, more attendants, more therapy and drugs," he asserted, adding:

"With this help, some of our mentally ill may walk again as human beings among their fellows."

Calls It Shameful

He described mental illness as "society's responsibility and in most cases society's utter shame."

"Petty partisan politics must not be allowed to stand in the way of discharging the mental health responsibility," he added.

The governor said about five percent of the present population of Pennsylvania will need psychiatric service and some kind of institutional care before they die.

Referring to the administration's appeal for more curative and preventative care of mental patients rather than custodial care, Leader remarked:

"If we continue to give only custodial care without treatment, the commonwealth will have to build additional hospital beds that cost anywhere from $5,000 to $20,000 each."

"This is the reason we must embark upon an intensive curative program. Pennsylvania must not only work to overcome crowding but to prevent it."

Leader pointed to scenes of disrepair at some hospitals to back up his claim of buildings being in poor condition at many of the state's mental institutions housing some 50,000 patients.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bureau of Mines has appointed four men to positions at the anthracite experiment station at Schuylkill Haven, Pa. The announcement said the men would do intensified research and mine drainage in the anthracite region.

They are Charles S. Kuebler of Summit Hill, station director; John W. Buch of Schuylkill Haven, mining branch chief; Henry A. Dierks of Kingston, mine drainage branch chief; and James W. Eckerd of Shavertown, utilization and preparation branch chief.

The station is field headquarters for the bureau's Division of Anthracite established last September.

Sees Stevenson Primary Majority

HARRISBURG (AP)—Adlia Stevenson will be given "one of the biggest majorities ever given a candidate in this state" in next year's presidential primary elections in the opinion of Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman.

In officially welcoming Stevenson to the April 24 primary as a test of strength in the former Illinois governor's bid for the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination, Furman said:

"Mr. Stevenson is a great statesman with a long and outstanding record as a public servant."

In a weekend statement, Furman pledged to "devote all my available time" to Stevenson's candidacy in the primary and added:

"Mr. Stevenson will have the confidence of labor, farmers and businessmen at home, as well as the confidence of governmental leaders and diplomats of other nations."

SUB-ZERO COLD IN MIDWEST TO HIT EAST SOON

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The season's worst blast of arctic cold spread across the Midwest Monday and headed toward the eastern seaboard.

The mercury nose dove to -45 degrees at Bemidji and Big Falls, Minn., coldest of the season. Bismark, N.D., had -30. Minneapolis-St. Paul shivered in -20 cold, a record low for the date.

Chicago had a low of 2 above, coldest of the season, with a forecast of 5 below for Tuesday night.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in Washington issued cold-wave warnings for the Ohio Valley, West Virginia, most of Pennsylvania, and New York State.

Cold To Intensify

The sub-zero cold now over much of the Midwest was expected to intensify in the next 24 hours and below zero temperatures were in prospect for much of Ohio, West Virginia, western and northern Pennsylvania and New York State.

Readings as low as 5 below were expected in southeastern Ohio, West Virginia and western Pennsylvania and as low as 10 below in central and northern New York State.

Subzero readings were common Monday over the north central portion of the nation and southward to southern Nebraska, northern Missouri and northern Illinois.

H. RODEHEAVER DIES AT AGE 75

WARSAW, Ind. (AP)—Homer Rodeheaver, 75, former college cheer leader who served for 20 years as Evangelist Billy Sunday's chief musical aide, died in his home in nearby Winona Lake Sunday.

He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage four days earlier.

A prolific writer of Gospel music and evangelistic books, Rodeheaver traveled the sawdust trail to all corners of the world, playing his slide trombone in city churches and the jungles of Africa.

He headed the Rodeheaver Hall-Mack Co. at Winona Lake, publishers and recorders of Gospel music, and operated a Palatka, Fla., ranch for underprivileged boys.

Native Of Ohio

Rodeheaver, a native of Union Furnace, Ohio, received his first musical training as a youngster in the mountains of eastern Tennessee.

He served as an army bandman in Cuba during the Spanish-American War and was a YMCA World War I volunteer in France.

URGES CARE TO KEEP HOLIDAY ACCIDENT FREE

"Do not let the happiness of the Christmas season be marred by preventable accidents on the highways, on the streets and in the homes," says Joel B. Davis Jr., president of the Pennsylvania Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., as it joined with the State Police, the motor organizations, the National Safety Council and other groups, in a campaign for an accident-free holiday era.

The state society, dedicated to service to the handicapped and crippled, is greatly concerned over the rising number of handicapped persons coming under the care of the organization—and its 52 affiliated local societies scattered over the state, including the Adams County Crippled Children's Society.

As a result of accidents that could, with care and caution, have been avoided.

"Very few accidents are not preventable," says Davis, who points out that they are always unwanted.

"The hurry and bustle of the Christmas season need not necessarily be accompanied by painful and serious accidents, even fatal ones, if every person will remember to be careful. Crowded highways, crowded streets, the risk taken to 'beat the traffic light,' crossing busy intersections without looking and traveling at a high rate of speed—both on city streets and on the highways—have always brought about accidents through which the happiness of the season is tempered with sadness."

Home And Highway

"In the home, too, every precaution should be taken to avoid accidents," says Mr. Davis, "for such accidents have become more numerous each year. Among all our precautions be sure that burning candles, or faulty electrical connections, do not cause disastrous fires and perhaps even death."

"This is the season, too, when snow and ice may be expected and every motorist should be certain he drives with caution and in safety."

"Everybody should be alert for pedestrians everywhere and especially on busy streets where many are apt, in their busy shopping errands, to dash out between parked automobiles in to traffic lanes to get to the other side of the street. If you want to cross, go to an intersection."

"And as we approach Christmas Day, travel will become heavier. Be sure the car is in good working order, that you slow down properly whenever snow and ice are encountered and keep within the speed limits always. Most driver accidents are caused by human errors."

"Your Christmas holiday season will be merrier if you do not get yourself—and others—involved in a serious accident," says Mr. Davis.

Rodeheaver, who never married, is survived by a sister, Ruth Thomas, Winona Lake.

Funeral services will be in the Warsaw Methodist church at Warsaw Tuesday with Bishop Arthur S. Moore of Atlanta, Ga., officiating. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery here.

"Silent Night" Brings Reprieve

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Strains of "Silent Night" filtered into a Common Pleas courtroom yesterday as 22-year-old Carl C. Martin was convicted of purse snatching.

Judge Harvey Straub had to decide whether to send Martin to prison or put him on probation. Hearing the carol, the judge said: "That does it."

He decided the prisoner should have another chance, with five years probation.

While choristers from county departments on the floor below continued their caroling, another defendant came before the judge. He was Moses Hinton, 41, of Detroit, convicted of car theft.

The judge, giving Hinton three years' probation, noticed the man was wearing the same light topcoat he had when arrested last August.

"Just a minute," the judge said, "I've got a coat here I don't wear very often."

So Hinton tried on the judge's overcoat in the courtroom, and finding it fit, was sent on his way.

LEADER OPENS XMAS SEASON FROM CAPITOL

HARRISBURG (AP)—The lighting of a 72-foot Christmas tree by Mrs. Mary Jane Leader, the governor's wife, and the singing of carols on the State Capitol Building steps officially welcomed the Christmas season to Pennsylvania last night.

Mrs. Leader pressed the switch which turned on over a thousand multi-colored lights adorning the hemlock tree on the State Capitol Plaza.

In an address before about 2,000 persons, Gov. Leader stressed the spiritual aspects of the holiday on the theme, "Christmas around the world."

Combined Choirs

"I agree that the celebration of Christmas is, most of all, a family matter; and I like to see the accent shifted from materialism to a more reverent observing of the birth of Jesus Christ," he declared.

The bands and glee clubs of John Harris, William Penn and Harrisburg Catholic high schools played and sang Christmas music during the capital city's first community carol sing and Christmas tree lighting.

In switching on the lights to the huge outdoor hemlock—the state tree—Mrs. Leader also lighted a 25-foot hemlock in the main capitol building rotunda.

Dome Lights

The lights inside the capitol dome were turned on for the first time since Leader was inaugurated last January.

In his address, the governor said: "Christmas around the world is, as I see it, simply a way of forging new links in the understanding of men, women and children throughout all the countries of the world. It is an invitation to cast their eyes to Bethlehem."

He emphasized that we must not only celebrate the birth of Christ but also have a belief in His teachings.

Rededication Urged

"We must rededicate ourselves to the brotherhood Jesus advocated, the kinship with our fellows that He preached, the Golden Rule that He taught."

"We should rededicate ourselves

SAN FRANCISCO CLINGS TO LEAD IN CAGE CHOICES

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
The Associated Press

San Francisco, North Carolina State and Utah continued to rank 1-3 in the weekly Associated Press basketball poll today.

Frisco, undefeated in five games this season and boasting a 31-game winning streak over a two-year span, collected 92 first place ballots. A total of 150 sportswriters and sportscasters voted in the poll, based on games through Dec. 17.

On the basis of 10 for first, nine for second etc., the Dons received 1,407 points and remained the top-ranking team.

All-America Bill Russell and Co. impressed over the past weekend with victories over Marquette and DePaul to capture the DePaul Invitational Tournament in Chicago.

North Carolina State (7-0) retained its runner-up spot on the strength of victories over Clemson, South Carolina and West Virginia. Utah (5-0), holding the No. 3 rating, heads a four-team field in the Kentucky invitational tourney that starts tonight. The Utes tangled with fourth-ranked Dayton in their opening round game.

The top ten teams with first place votes in parentheses:

1. San Francisco (92)	1407
2. North Carolina State (13)	1079
3. Utah (2)	966
4. Dayton (2)	633
5. Brigham Young (2)	528
6. North Carolina (4)	519
7. Holy Cross (11)	429
8. Vanderbilt (9)	351
9. Kentucky (2)	353
10. Iowa (1)	304

Second Ten

11. George Washington (7)	261

16. Alabama	63
17. Illinois	55
18. Indiana	54
19. Memphis State	54
20. Duquesne	48

(Note: Kentucky Wesleyan received two first place votes and Louisville one first).

FINE TURNS TO PROFIT

EDMOND, Okla. (AP) — A $10 fine levied against a teacher for permitting students to sell cakes door-to-door has turned into a $31 profit.

Sympathy build up for the students and teacher, Alvin Lawson, who paid the fine. The cakes were sold to raise funds for a school carnival.

When the carnival was held a citizen repaid the teacher for the fine. In addition a magician from Oklahoma City offered his services free for the carnival. Finally, a hat was passed and $30.95 was contributed "to defray the inconvenience the students had while selling cakes."

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — A government researcher, studying fluoridation effects of Central High School students, says, "We've never seen better teeth anywhere in the country."

A. L. Russel, DDS, chief of epidemiology and biometry branch of the National Institute for Dental Research, made the statement on completion of the second survey in two years at the school.

Grand Rapids claims it was the first city in the United States to add fluoride to its water supply in 1945.

MIAMI JOINS BASEBALL LOOP

MIAMI (AP)—This tourist mecca, which gives solid support to virtually every sport except baseball, has replaced Syracuse in the Triple A International League.

Sidney Salomon Jr., former executive vice president of the old St. Louis Browns, and Elliott Stein, 36-year-old St. Louis investment banker, bought the Syracuse franchise late yesterday for approximately $100,000.

The Miami club will have a working agreement with the Philadelphia Phils of the National League, Salomon said.

Salomon and Stein made an offer several weeks ago to Martin D. Haske, Syracuse owner, but a civic group raised $50,000 for the franchise and $33,000 for purchase of equipment at the ball park.

Lawyers said the contract was too involved to be drawn hurriedly and when the deadline for selling the club to the Syracuse group had passed, Haske notified Salomon that the ball club was his.

Salomon said he still must get permission of International League directors to transfer the franchise. He expects no difficulty.

Other first-round pairings today: 3:15 P.M. — Ball State (Ind.) vs. Georgia Teachers.

6:30 P.M. — University of Akron vs. Iona College (N.Y.).

8:15 P.M. — Lemoine College (N.Y.) vs. Quantico Marines.

The four teams surviving the first round will collide in the semi-finals of the three-day, single-elimination tournament, with the four losers meeting in a consolation tourney.

Akron brings the tallest team to the tournament and is one of the favorites, boasting a perfect record after five games. Quantico has an 11-1 mark. Georgia Teachers (5-1) also is rated a good bet to win the title.

EDISON DOWNS DELONE JR. HI

Delone Junior High School's dribblers were outclassed at Edison Junior High, Harrisburg, Monday as the Squires dropped a twin bill, the varsity by a 57-24 margin and the jayvees by a 40-29 score.

Edison, victors in four of five games, took a 12-3 lead in the first period and breezed through easily. At half time the score was 27-5.

Gephart and Parr each landed six points for Delone while Shirley looped 15 for the winners.

Delone now has a 1-1 mark and next meets the Gettysburg Junior High courtmen at McSherrystown early in January.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Walter E. Elam stopped to help a man who was having fuel line trouble on his car. While the two men were laboring under the hood, Elam's car, a 1953 model he had bought only four days before, coasted downhill and flipped into a canyon.

Damage was estimated at $800.

HOLY CROSS IS UPSET 89-84 BY ALABAMA

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press

Alabama headed home for the Christmas holidays today and then an engagement in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl basketball tournament Dec. 29-30 with a brighter outlook on life after scoring an upset 89-84 victory over the highly-rated Holy Cross Crusaders.

Coches Johnny Dee's Alabama cagemen, leading 48-36 at halftime last night in Boston Garden, fought off a furious Holy Cross second-half rally to deal the Crusaders their first defeat of the young season.

Holy Cross, winner of five straight, had been ranked No. 7 in this week's Associated Press poll, but that voting had been concluded before Alabama upset the applicant.

The 'Bama boys know how Holy Cross feels. Alabama won the Birmingham Classic tournament recently. Then the Tide, rated No. 5 in last week's AP nationwide poll, went on the road. First North Carolina walloped Alabama 99-77, then in New York last Saturday St. John's of Brooklyn beat them 87-79.

Win On Fouls

Alabama beat Holy Cross from the free throw lanes, converting 27 of 34 chances, while the Crusaders made good on 12 of 19. Holy Cross bagged 36 field goals, five more than Alabama.

Vanderbilt, rated No. 8 in this week's ratings and the only other team in the top 10 to see action, pulled away in the second half to drub Georgia 85-61. Georgia led 15-11 soon after the start—before the Commodores began to roll.

Other games involving ranking teams showed Indiana an 80-61 winner over Cincinnati, Illinois 97-79 over DePaul, and Duquesne 71-55 over Loyola of Los Angeles.

The Rice Owls ran their unbeaten string to seven by defeating Kansas 75-68. The Owls led by 19 points at one time. Temple Tucker, 6 foot 10 Rice center, tallied 27 points.

Warming up for a big game tonight against San Francisco, the nation's No. 1 team, Wichita barreled 16 points through the hoop in an overtime tilt and whipped Texas Christian 79-69. After regulation time the score was tied at 63-63, but four TCU players fouled out in the extra session. One of them was Dick O'Neal, who got 33 points for the losers.

Robin Freeman scored 21 points as Ohio State defeated Tulane 72-66 while Norm Stewart tanked 30 points for Missouri, which thumped Idaho 81-57. Iowa State, led by Gary Thompson's 24 points, defeated Colorado A&M 72-60, and Wisconsin rallied for 44 points in the last half to defeat Nebraska 71-52. Dick Miller tallied 21 points for Wisconsin.

The Carrousel basketball classic started at Charlotte, N.C., and Wake Forest ripped Mississippi State 95-68; Colgate thumped Davidson 86-51; Tennessee downed Boston University 80-77 in spite of Kevin Thomas' 46 points; and Clemson rocked Florida State 94-76. In the championship semi-finals, Colgate meets Wake Forest while Clemson plays Tennessee.

TOPPAZZINI IS PUSHING AHEAD

NEW YORK (AP)—Zello Toppazzini of the Providence Reds increased his American Hockey League individual scoring lead to 7 points during the week while teammate Paul Larivee and Buffalo's Ken Wharram remained tied for second place.

The veteran wingman scored 6 points to give him 19 goals and 33 assists for 52 points. Larivee and Wharram collected only 2 points each and share the runnerup spot with 45 points.

Pittsburgh's Willie Marshall and Camille Henry of Providence have scored the most goals, 22 apiece, with Toppazzini and Wharram the top play-makers with 33 assists each.

Fred Glover of Cleveland has spent the most time in the penalty box, 82 minutes. Pittsburgh's Gil Mayer is the leading goalie with an average of 2.75 goals allowed per game.

LAYNE BEATEN BY PASTRANO

By ED TUNSTALL
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A badly battered Rex Layne, once regarded as the most promising heavyweight nothing can stop Willie Pastrano from going all the way to the championship "if he takes his time."

But wily Willie, the New Orleans middleweight turned light heavyweight, turned heavyweight, showed last night he may need very little time as he breezed to a unanimous 10-round decision over the mauler from Lewiston, Utah.

Pastrano, who weighed in at a well-packed 185 pounds, danced jabbed his way into serious contention for Rocky Marciano's heavyweight crown and all but eliminated the fast-fading Layne from the picture.

"I can't see anybody stopping Pastrano if he only takes his time," sighed the 200-pound Layne, bathing a deep, raw gash over his left eye. Willie's target for last night. "He's the fastest I've ever seen."

Pastrano brought the crowd to its feet several times by abandoning his left toe work to swap slugs with Layne. And at one point, he even sent the big boy into full retreat with a fifth round volley that opened the cut. The wounded eye bled every round thereafter.

Referee Frank Kercheval had Willie in front 7-2-1. Judge Pete Giaruso saw it 5-3-2 and Judge Eddie (Kid) Wolfe had Pastrano the winner 7-1-2.

NEW YORK (AP)—Carmine Fiore and Gene Poirer battled 10 furious rounds to a draw last night. Poirer of Niagara Falls, N. Y., weighed 150½ pounds, Fiore, of Brooklyn, 149½.

The scrap was a sizzler with Fiore, the 12 to 5 favorite, piling up an early lead. The 23-year-old Niagara Falls welter closed with a rush to get the draw. Referee Patey Della scored it 4-4-2 with four points for each and Judge Leo Birnbaum saw it 5-5 with five points for each. Judge Al Singer voted for Fiore 7-3, but the majority rules. The AP card was 5-5. There were no knockdowns in the televised bout.

SPARTANS SHOW GRID "TRICKS"

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Anybody who could diagram a football play could explain to anyone else who would listen today just what Michigan State will throw against UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

A crowd of more than 3,500 turned out for a public showing of the Spartan tactics in an open house practice at East Los Angeles Junior College.

It was the first time there has been prior announcement by a visiting Big Ten team of a come-one, come-all workout.

Coaches Are Amazed

Some of the assistant coaches were shaking their heads in amazement as "Coach of the Year" Duffy Daugherty explained each series of Michigan State plays while the team romped through their formations.

"This is our quick kick," Daugherty would explain, while his team ran through the play, "and our fake kick, and our quick-kick hand off and our lateral off the fake."

"We showed them about everything we used this year," Daugherty said afterwards. "I figure Red Sanders has us pretty well scouted so what's the harm in showing the folks our stuff."

STRADER FIRED AS 49ERS COACH

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers were in the market for a new coach today after firing one a year ago for failure to win a National Football League title and his successor yesterday after a 4-8 season.

Coches Norman (Red) Strader, hired on a three-year contract last Dec. 23 to replace Lawrence (Buck) Shaw, was "relieved of his coaching duties," effective immediately, by owner Tony Morabito.

"There was a little dissension, some resentment," Morabito said. "In a nutshell, the players were playing under Red and not for him. It was a case of incompatibility."

Coach Is Hurt

Although Morabito passed off questions on the 49ers' contract with Strader, the 50-year-old coach said flatly that he had a three-year agreement.

"I was told that the 49ers will respect that contract. I signed for three years, with a severance in the third year."

Strader indicated he was hurt by the incompatibility charge.

"I've been coaching for 25 years and one of my strong points always has been to get the most out of my players," he said. "This was a very cooperative group. They gave me the game ball at the end of the season and it certainly wasn't a phony gesture because there's not a phony guy on the club."

Lawmakers' Holiday Recess Delays State Tax Solution

HARRISBURG (AP)—Settlement of the tax problem before year's end was just about written off as lost today.

Both House and Senate leaders made plans to adjourn the Legislature this week until Jan. 16, carrying a recess through Christmas, New Year's and the state Farm Show.

Senate Republicans considered the idea of reviving the 3 1/2 per cent manufacturers' excise levy defeated last week and returning it to committee for possible future amendment, possibly into a form of sales tax.

No Tax Plan

There was no immediate tax plan forthcoming from either Republicans or Democrats as a result of two conferences a group of Pennsylvania business and industrial leaders held here yesterday.

Frank R. Denton, vice chairman of the Mellon National Bank and Trust Co., Pittsburgh, said after 16 of the businessmen met with the governor that he proposed a sales tax as the answer to the tax question.

"They asked me what I was for and I said a sales tax," he told a newsman.

Sen. Berger (R—Potter), who sat in on a later session when most of the same industrialists met with GOP legislative leaders, said the consensus among them was for a sales tax.

The governor, long opposed to a sales levy, said he thought the meeting was "worthwhile to me because I got the benefit of these businessmen's tax views."

But Leader declined to discuss specific taxes that were mentioned at the luncheon at the Executive Mansion.

Budget Needs

The governor and his brother and legislative secretary, Henry B. Leader, reportedly told the businessmen group that the commonwealth needs approximately 465 million dollars to balance the budget for the two-year fiscal period that started last June 1.

Their presentation also included a review of the classified income tax, defeated by Senate Republicans last August, and the manufacturers' excise levy, knocked down by the GOP only last week.

In another development, House Democrats said they planned to come up with a new idea to provide 110 million dollars to pay overdue state aid for school districts.

Rep. Readinger, House Democratic leader, said the plan tentatively calls for borrowing from the highway, game and fish funds. These funds are kept separate from general taxes and there are legal barriers on expenditures.

On another front, the governor narrated a documentary motion picture on conditions in Pennsylvania's mental hospitals in making a dramatic plea for 26 million dollars in increased funds.

The showing took place in the ornate House chamber, never before used for such a visual demonstration, before a joint session of the House and Senate.

GOP Caucus

"Our decisions—yours and mine—about taxes and appropriations and budgets and allocations will shape the life of all our people now locked up in mental institutions," he said.

Earlier, Senate Republicans caucused on a tax program proposed independently by Sen. Scott (R—Carbon) but no action was taken on it.

Scott suggested that the defeated 3 1/2 per cent manufacturers' excise tax be amended into a 2 per cent consumers' excise tax, a form of sales levy, and that the 5 per cent corporate net income levy be boosted to 6 per cent.

Yield Estimated

The two-part program would yield 325 to 375 millions by his estimate.

Most of the industrialists who participated in the tax discussions yesterday were reluctant to make a statement for the record.

Sen. Mahoney, Senate Republican floor leader, made it a point to note that the business group did not repudiate the stand taken by the Senate GOP against both the classified income levy and the manufacturers' excise tax.

"And they didn't renounce their representatives up here," added Mahoney.

He alluded to lobbyists whom Leader blamed for defeat of the excise tax.

ANNUAL PARTY, SANTA PARADE IN EMMITSBURG

For the 27th consecutive year the Emmitsburg Lions Club will sponsor the annual Christmas party and parade for the enjoyment of district children on Saturday morning and afternoon.

Activities will get under way at 10 a.m. this year with a free movie for children only at the Gien Theater, though the courtesy of the management. If necessary, a second show will be projected at 11 a.m. Following the movie a free lunch will be offered the children at 12 o'clock in the fire hall, under the supervision of the Emmitsburg Homemakers' Club.

In addition to the Lions Club, the affair is sponsored and supported by most local merchants, the town council and the Homemakers Club. Money is raised by advertising and the town fathers assume the responsibility of providing the decorations. About 500 children attend the affair.

Following the free lunch the Christmas parade will be held at 2 p.m., with music supplied by the Emmitsburg Municipal Band under the direction of Walter A. Simpson. The parade will form at the Doughboy in West End and will proceed over the usual route, terminating at the Square for the distribution of candy and oranges by Santa. Traffic will be regulated by the Maryland State Police and the Emmitsburg Police Department.

A previously discussed plan to bring Santa here by helicopter has been abandoned and the usual procedure will prevail. Santa will be escorted from his landing site atop Carricks Knob by his usual escort, John J. Hollinger. Christmas music will be amplified from the Square by a local business concern.

FAMILY CLINGS TO OWN XMAS CUSTOMS, FUN

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE M.D.
The Associated Press

Christmas is a little different in every family. But Christmas is good when a whole family gains a feeling of warmth and sharing and when this spirit can even spread over into the community and outside world.

Let me tell you some of the Christmas traditions in our family. We live in a small enough city so we can go out into the country and cut our own tree. No one in our family ever thinks of buying a tree, the cutting is so much a family affair. We get the tree about a week before Christmas, usually on a Sunday.

When the children were little, they were all bundled up in snowsuits, and tramped the fields of a friend's farm, spying out trees. The smaller the child, the bigger trees he selected. Finally a choice was made. Dad cut it down, added some extra evergreen branches for decorations. Mother and children cut holly. Then all of us and many other families gathered around a big camp fire, had hot cocoa or coffee (depending on our ages), hot dogs and other ingredients of a winter picnic.

Decorate The Tree

When we got the tree home that afternoon Dad and the boys set it up in a corner of the living room. The boxes of ornaments, saved from years back, were brought down from the attic and the children started the decoration of the tree, with many remarks and memories as old familiar figures were dug from the box.

During the week many more decorations were added to the tree as the Christmas Spirit rose and the children made and bought special favorites.

Gaily wrapped gifts slowly appeared under the tree. Each morning the children would dash to the tree and read the inscriptions, shake and rattle the weirdly shaped packages, with much speculation as to contents. The more enigmatic the label the better.

Party Time

Christmas Eve has always been

Mr. Sprankle is serving with the U. S. Air Force.

Euclid Jones, a student at Bridgewater College, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvin P. Jones.

Suspect Is Wounded While Fleeing Police

READING, Pa. (AP)—Police shot Oscar Kraft, 27, in the arm at a Mount Penn diner yesterday and arrested him and another man on burglary charges.

Police said Kraft was shot in the left forearm as he and Carlton Schroeder of Hanover tried to flee the scene. A third man, Galen R. Hoke, 24, of York, a Navy metal-smith on leave, was held as a material witness.

Seagoer Tows Home To Florida

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Walter Otton, of Jersey City, N. J., grinned at a reporter as he made a line fast from a houseboat to a former 50-foot Navy launch.

"Moving my house," he said. "Been planning it ten years."

Otton built the houseboat himself, then bought the Navy launch. He is towing it to West Palm Beach with the help of a friend.

Deny Admissions Due To Housing

CHICAGO (AP)—The housing shortage on the campus of the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana is so acute that 460 girl students were denied admission this fall.

Dean Fred H. Turner told the Board of Trustees that no male students were turned away for lack of housing but some 1,500 are living in basements and attics.

Ted Atkinson will be after his fifth Hialeah jockey title when he rides during the 40-day meeting opening Jan. 17.

Dear Sir: The amount of cash taken from the Talk of the Town (nightclub) was $1,897 — not $4,000. Will be looking for a newspaper print of it."

It won a bet for her brother, Roger (Tony) Nichols, a sailor aboard a Navy destroyer escort. Nichols had bet a shipmate it would get through without delay. Allegan, in western Michigan, has a population of 4,801.

TIGHTEN LAW ON AIR RIFLE USE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A House-passed bill calls for tighter regulation of the sale and use of air rifles, or BB guns as they are known in Pennsylvania.

Ready for Senate consideration today, the proposal would ban the sale of such weapons to anyone under 18 with certain exceptions. The exceptions would permit ownership of a BB gun if a person under 18 is a member of a club, team or society organized for educational purposes or if he has written permission to use an indoor or outdoor rifle range under the supervision of a "responsible adult."

Cites Many Accidents

Persons under 18 who keep BB guns in their homes or on private grounds at all times would not be affected by the bill.

The House vote was 152-27 last night after Rep. Readinger, House Democratic leader, urged its passage with the statement "the time has long passed since we should have enacted such a law."

He mentioned the many accidents involving BB guns and said the bill is designed to give "some greater measure of control over BB guns."

The bill provides penalties of a fine up to $100 or imprisonment for up to 60 days or both for violations.

Penny Lucas rolled a 299 game at Gossett's New York Riveria alleys. After 11 straight strikes the 5 pin wiggled but failed to fall. Her three-game series was 630.

ADAMS COUNTY ELECTRIC APPLIANCE COMPANY

31 Carlisle St. Gettysburg, Pa.

WESTINGHOUSE LENDSS$168,000 TO ITS STRIKERS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp., standing pat on its offer of a five-year contract and declining to submit disputed issues in a strike to arbitration, today stepped up its program of lending $100 to each of its idle employees to help tide them over Christmas.

Clerks from the payroll department were present at the big East Pittsburgh works — where more than 10,000 are idle—to hand over checks. Similar arrangements were made at other idle Westinghouse plants throughout the nation.

The loan program began yesterday at a few plants. At Sharon, Pa., the company reported it loaned $168,000.

Members of the striking International Union of Electrical Workers crossed their own picket lines — with union sanction—to pick up the checks.

Governors Make Plea

THE company and negotiators recessed their talks yesterday with no report of progress as James B. Carey, IUE president, arrived to take part in today's negotiations.

Pleas for submission to arbitration were made yesterday by the governors of three states—George M. Leader of Pennsylvania, Averell Harriman of New York and Theodore McKeldin of Maryland.

In rejecting the proposals, Westinghouse said:

"We fully understand the desire to turn this dispute over to arbitration. It is true that many types of labor disputes can be properly submitted to arbitration. However, in this matter, because of our obligations to stockholders, we cannot delegate to a third party a

3 Americans, Others Injured In Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—More than 15 persons were injured Sunday in a series of hit-and-run terrorist bombings and shootings in this British crown colony.

The injured included three Americans, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Gail Wheeler of Sioux Falls, S.D. They suffered superficial injuries when three hand grenades were thrown through a window at a Christmas - decorated night club here where they were seated at a table.

Mrs. Wheeler was not hurt. The Murphys were cut by flying glass and Wheeler was cut on one ankle.

The Murphys work with the U.S. consulate radio monitoring station here.

Three British soldiers were injured by a grenade tossed into a Nicosia cafe.

In Famagusta, two British army officers were shot. One was reported in critical condition.

decision which would affect the competitive standing of our company for at least the next five years."

Need Long Pact

Westinghouse says a five year pact is needed to allow it to compete favorably with its biggest competitor, General Electric. GE and the IUE agreed recently to a five year pact but the union says Westinghouse's offer is not as advantageous.

The IUE, which has some 44,000 members on strike at 30 plants, accepted the governors' proposals. Withholding comment on the proposal was another striking union, the Independent United Electrical Workers, which is on strike at 10 additional plants. The IUE claims it has 17,000 members at work in Westinghouse plants, but the company says the union has only 10,500. U.E. negotiators will meet with Westinghouse later this week.

The IUE struck Oct. 17, the U.E. on Oct. 26.

The unions sought a 15-cent-an-hour wage hike under a one-year contract. They rejected offers which the company says will provide minimum raises of 23½ cents an hour over the five years.

Before the strike, workers earned an average of $2.10 an hour.

DEMOCRATS MAY STIR ROUGH BATTLE IN 1956

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the Democrats could just get a few more presidential candidates to take off their sweaters and run out on the field, they'd have a pretty lively game going.

It may turn lively soon, and rough, too.

While the Democratic hopefuls are bucking the Republicans they are also knocking each other's heads together. One or more may land in the political infirmary before the party's convention blows the whistle and picks a candidate. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee are the only Democrats who have come right out and started running. They may have some company before convention next August.

New York's Gov. Averell Harriman says he's not an "active" candidate. But he acts like a man racing down the sidelines, hoping for a forward pass and yelling "Hey, fellows, look at me!"

"Sound Like Candidates"

Two other governors — Ohio's Frank Lausche and Michigan's G. Mennen Williams — at the moment seem bothered by restraint but only to the point of not saying they're candidates. They're sure making sounds like candidates.

Lausche simply says he will be his state's "favorite son" candidate, which can be interpreted as meaning he won't stump the campaign for the nomination but would love to get it at the convention. Williams, like Harriman, is not bashful. Both have hit Stevenson over the head with a charge which, to some people, may seem as deadly as a balloon. They complain he wants to follow a moderate course.

But there are probably plenty who disagree with them if they think they sound more aggressive or progressive than Stevenson. One thing is certain: they can't be sensationally different and expect their party's nomination.

There's a good reason: The Democrats at this point in history — a time of high prosperity when

Flood Rages; 160 Dead, 200 Missing

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The Abou Ali River raged in flood across north Lebanon Monday, with some 160 persons reported killed and 200 missing.

The torrent cut the coastal town of Tripoli in half, destroying about 100 buildings and wrecking six bridges. President Camille Chamoun and Premier Rashid Karami hurried to Tripoli to oversee rescue work by troops and police reinforced from other towns.

7 ORPHANED BY KILLER GO HOME TO GRANDMOTHER

VANDERGRIFT, Pa. (AP)—Seven children orphaned last Wednesday in the mad rampage of a teen-age killer were placed in the legal custody of their maternal grandparents Monday.

Six of the children of Jay Warren Small and his wife, Irene, covered in an upstairs bedroom as 17-year-old John Fallone shot down Mr. and Mrs. Small and the father's brother, William Small. Earlier Fallone had critically wounded 15-year-old Gladys Small, whose refusal to date him apparently triggered the berserk outburst.

Fallone was tracked down by a posse next day and fatally wounded before he was captured.

Injured Girl Improved

Gladys was reported somewhat improved Monday in Armstrong County Hospital where she was admitted with a bullet wound of the chest. Policeman Gus Zanos of Apollo also was wounded by Fallone in a gun battle before the youth was captured.

Gladys and the six younger Small children were placed under the guardianship of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nicewonger of Erie. The grandparents said the children's future will be decided after talks with surviving members of the families. The Nicewongers emphasized that the children will be kept together.

The three shooting victims were buried Sunday after a triple funeral at nearby Apollo.

U. N. SECURITY MAY SPLIT-TERM SEAT IN GROUP

By TOM HOGGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Big Four sought solid U.N. approval today for a split-term scheme to break the Security Council membership deadlock delaying adjournment of the 1955 General Assembly session.

Under the proposed "gentleman's understanding," Yugoslavia would be elected to the Council seat Turkey vacates Jan. 1. The Yugoslavs then would resign at the end of 1956 and the assembly would elect the Philippines for the rest of the two-year term.

As delegates prepared to ballot a 36th time, hope was voiced that the compromise would go through and the assembly could wind up today.

The Philippines and Yugoslavia have been deadlocked for two months in their race for the Council seat. Need for a solution became increasingly urgent because the council could not function after Jan. 1 without a full membership.

Gets Red Support

The prospects for adoption of the compromise soared when Russia finally made known yesterday she would support it, although she felt the whole idea was illegal.

Some Latin-American delegates still opposed the plan last night, contending it set a dangerous precedent which could endanger the two seats Latin America traditionally holds on the council.

The British, who backed Yugoslavia's candidacy, argued that the proposal set no precedent because flood-control projects—projects under construction or in the planning stage—will not be known until Eisenhower delivers his state of the union message and submits his budget sometime next month.

it did not involve any written commitment by anyone to support the Philippines next year.

The United States, the Philippines' chief supporter, first proposed splitting the two-year term but wanted its candidate to lead off. Britain and the Soviets opposed this, contending the seat should go to an east European country under a 1946 agreement which the United States contends held only for that year.

The Americans argued that Asia should have more representation on the council.

Assembly President Jose Maza of Chile finally came up with a "lottery" solution last week, putting both nations' names in a ballot box and drawing out one—Yugoslavia's.

MARTIN, DUFF TO PREPARE FLOOD LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the first tasks Sens. Martin and Duff of Pennsylvania will undertake in the new year will be the preparation of a flood-study bill.

The two former Republican governors announced in September—while northeastern Pennsylvania was digging itself free from floods caused by Hurricane Diane—that they would jointly sponsor legislation calling for a complete Army Engineers study of Pennsylvania's flood problems.

They said their bill, would ask also for recommendations and estimates of steps that should be taken to prevent recurrence of last summer's costly disaster.

To Cover All Phases

"This legislation will be intended to cover all phases of flood control beginning with reforestation and going on to the dredging of channels, erection of dikes and walls, the building of levees and retainers and the use of dams where necessary," their joint announcement said.

The senators' aides said Monday preparatory work on the proposed bill has been going on and a final draft will be ready after the senators have an opportunity to talk it over further. Aides said they expect these conferences to begin soon after Congress convenes Jan. 3.

What the President will recommend for Pennsylvania's regular there is no public clamor for startling changes or innovations — are just about as moderate as the Republicans.

The narrowness of the recent elections shows the voters can't find much to choose between the two parties.

Santa and the Dumdidly

By Lucrece Hudgins Beale

AP Newsfeatures

Santa opened the brown paper parcel and out fell the Dumdidly.

Synopsis: Gimme House is for children who are always saying "Gimme" and never want to share. Each child lives and plays there alone in a world of his own. Beanie finds he doesn't like having all he wants after all, but when he says he wishes to go home the dwarf says that Gimme Children can never go home.

CHAPTER 14 DUMDIDDY IN SANTA LAND

Meantime, the Dumdidly ran through the town. He met a little white mouse warming himself in a spot of sun and he said, "O little white mouse, can you tell me how to get to Santa Land?"

The white mouse yawned and said, "No, I have never been."

Then the Dumdidly met a cockroach crawling through a pipe and he said, "Can you tell me how to get to Santa Land?"

"Not me," said the cockroach. "I never go out of these pipes."

He went on until he met a mole and he asked him if he knew how to get to Santa Land. The mole said he didn't know that but he did know a Glump who had been to Santa Land last year and who knew all the proper travel reservations one had to make.

So the Dumdidly hunted till he found the Glump (a Glump is a lumpy sort of Gee) and the Glump said yes, indeed, he had been to Santa Land and he had gotten there simply by having his wife wrap him up in a box and mail him off parcel post in the regular Christmas mail.

"Well," said the Dumdidly, "I have a favor to ask of you. I'm in a terrible hurry to get to Santa Land myself and I wonder if you'd be kind enough to wrap me up and mail me in the Christmas mail?"

"Of course," said the Glump. And he carefully did wrap the Dumdidly in stiff brown wrapping paper and tied him with thick twine and mailed him at the post office to:

Santa Claus
Santa Land

Wherever That May Be

So it came about, a short time later, that Santa Claus was in his workshop designing paper doll clothes when the mail brownie burst in with the day's mail and laid it at Santa's feet. The very first piece of mail that Santa picked up was the brown paper parcel sent by the Glump.

When Santa opened it, out fell the Dumdidly, half dead from being bounced and crushed and twisted in the Christmas mail.

Santa stared at the Dumdidly. "Oh, dear! Why are you here? I told you to take care of that boy who had run away from home because he had no Christmas spirit."

"That's why I'm here!" moaned the Dumdidly. He was quite worn out with his worries over Beanie. "I saved the boy from a redheaded robber and I saved him from a witch and I saved him from an ogre but now he is in real trouble and I don't know what to do."

"Where is he?" asked Santa.

"The Gimme Dwarf has him!"

Santa sprang from his chair.

"The Gimme Dwarf?" he cried.

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear!"

He strode up and down the shop, pulling at his whiskers and moaning softly. The Dumdidly strode up and down at Santa's heels, blinking and sighing mighty sighs.

"I must go and save him," said Santa finally.

"But the Gimme Dwarf is the Spirit of Getting and is your worst enemy!" exclaimed the Dumdidly.

"What if he should capture you?"

"I will go in disguise and hope no one recognizes me," said Santa.

When Santa's workers heard this they were very upset.

"You can't leave now!" they cried. "It's just two days before Christmas! Look at the work to be done!"

They pointed to the toys that had yet to be finished and packed before Christmas Eve.

"You must finish them yourselves," said Santa. "I have long ago taught you all you need to know."

"But suppose you don't come back at all! What then?"

"I'll be back and in good time, too," promised Santa.

But as he strode away with the Dumdidly on his shoulder he couldn't help thinking: "But what will happen if I don't get back?"

SCRIBE ISSUES BUSINESS PLEA FOR CHRISTMAS

NEW YORK (AP)—Belief in Santa Claus doubtless is more common among the little Virginias of our land than among hardheaded American businessmen.

But the titans of industry might well be writing letters to the good saint, for all we know. If so, here are some things they may be asking him to put under their Christmas trees:

Please, Santa, bring a tax cut—almost any old tax cut: on our profits, our take home pay or on the products we make and hope to sell. At the same time, naturally, we expect you to see that the budget gets balanced, the federal debt reduced, and national defenses made ever stronger.

As little politics as possible, too, please. It will be an election year, but don't let them make business the whipping boy. Don't notice if big business gets bigger. At the same time, help little business.

Let Competitors Fail

Let everybody make a load of money, and nobody fail (except maybe one or two of our more troublesome competitors).

And go easy on those congressional probes. We spend countless man hours preparing for them. They come high in time and money. And when they're over, often as not we just wonder what the shooting was all about.

For that matter, you've no idea.

Santa, how much time we spend filling out government forms, how many clerks we hire just to keep Washington informed about — sometimes we aren't sure what about.

If the new year brings a guaranteed annual wage for labor, please, Santa, give us guaranteed annual profits. Our stockholders guaranteed annual dividends, and the dads of the land guaranteed annual bank accounts riding high above the first of the month bills.

Finally, Santa, if it isn't asking too much, settle that farm problem. Somehow make the surpluses of farm products disappear with a profit to the government and without costing the taxpayers a cent—and also without hurting the feelings of our friends and allies who themselves have farm products to sell on the world market. Let farm prices rise so that the farmers will have more money to spend on the things we make.

But make real sure that if prices rise for the farmers the cost of living doesn't go up for us.

What say, Santa? We've been real good boys most of the time in 1955.

ARMY PRIVATES ACQUITTED IN E. BERLIN BRAWL

BERLIN (AP)—A six-man U.S. Army court acquitted two American privates Monday of disorderly conduct charges based on their arrest in the Soviet sector of Berlin.

The court ruled that Willie J. Holden, Poplarville, Miss., and Richard L. Calbert, Kansas City, Mo., were innocent in a brawl which led to their arrest by Communist East German police and their subsequent release by the Russians.

The case aroused wide interest because the East German Reds, claiming that East Berlin is part of "sovereign" East Germany, demanded that their courts try the men. The Russians, however, abided by the four-power rules long in use in divided Berlin and returned the soldiers to U.S. authorities.

Called Americans "Swine"
A refugee, Mrs. Helene Ehlers, testified Monday that an East German cabaret performer, Werner Lierck, provoked an argument with the two soldiers at a Soviet sector bar on Dec. 7. The witness said the German repeatedly assailed the soldiers as "American swine" and tried to attack one of them. When Lierck lunged toward Holden, the woman testified, Holden hit him in self-defense.

Mrs. Ehlers was on her way from East Germany to West Berlin when she saw the incident.

The soldiers testified that they tried their best to get away from Lierck in order to return to West Berlin. They said that after the fracas, they jumped in an East Berlin taxi but the driver delivered them to the Communist police.

Face Struck, Clubbed
Holden said he was struck across the face and clubbed several times.

The Germans turned the soldiers over to the Russians after a few hours. The men said during three days of Soviet detention they were questioned on the military details of their regimental unit. They were not mistreated by the Russians, however.

The soldiers were returned to active duty.

U. N. DELEGATES SEEK ORDERS IN COUNCIL VOTE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — U. N. delegates, split over a lottery scheme to decide a deadlocked Security Council race, sought final instructions Monday from their home governments before resuming voting Tuesday.

Assembly leaders still hoped to adjourn their 1956 session by Tuesday midnight.

Monday's balloting was cancelled at the request of the United States, which is backing the Philippines, and of Britain, which is supporting Yugoslavia.

Seek Additional Time

The two big Western powers, which have endorsed the split-term draw proposed by Assembly President Jose Maza, asked for the additional day to give governments more time to decide their stand.

Maza proposed that the two candidate nations divide the two-year council term which becomes vacant Jan. 1 with expiration of Turkey's tenure. To decide which nation would sit first, Maza put their two names in a box and, blindfolded, drew out one—Yugoslavia. The Yugoslavs agreed to resign at the end of 1956 so the Philippines could have the seat for 1957.

Denounce Split Term

Some delegates denounced Maza's proposal as illegal and immoral. On a subsequent 35th ballot, Yugoslav pulled ahead with 34 votes but fell short of the 40 necessary for a two-thirds majority. The Philippines polled only 19 votes because of the agreement with Maza.

After conferences with their backers, both the Yugoslavs and Filipinos said they would stick with the Maza proposal over the weekend. The Assembly president set out to convince his fellow Latin Americans of its feasibility. A U. S. spokesman said it appeared to offer the only possibility of breaking the long deadlock.

Jean Beliveau likes to have Terry Sawchuk in the nets when he's playing hockey. Of Beliveau's first 11 goals this season, seven were scored against Sawchuk.

Eden Well; Faces Cabinet Shakeup

LONDON — Prime Minister Eden returned to his desk Monday, after a week's illness, to deal with many problems, including a reported shakeup of his Cabinet.

The reshuffle reportedly would shift Richard A. Butler from the post of chancellor of the exchequer—the nation's economic czar—to the job of deputy prime minister. Into his job, the reports say, will go Harold Macmillan, now foreign secretary, who will be succeeded by Defense Minister Selwyn Lloyd. Other changes involving Labor Minister Sir Walter Monckton and Health Minister Ian MacLeod are also in the wind.

COURT UPHOLDS 3 CONVICTIONS IN VOTE FRAUD

TRENTON, N. J. — The New Jersey Supreme Court Monday unanimously affirmed conviction of three Pennsylvania couples for illegal voting in the borough of Avalon, Cape May County.

In one opinion, written by Chief Justice Arthur T. Vanderbilt, the court upheld conviction of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Benny, Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Ziccardi, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Huberty.

The court ruled the three couples had permanent domiciles in Pennsylvania and merely maintained residences in Avalon.

It said New Jersey's constitution requires domicile as a qualification for voting.

The court ruled Benny and his wife, Edith, were domiciled at 820 Glendalough Rd., Erdenheim, Pa., and had residence at 2432 Harbor Ave. in Avalon. The couple was convicted of voting fraudulently in Avalon at the November general elections in 1953 and 1954 and at the primary election in 1954. They were fined $500 each.

The decision held Ziccardi and his wife, Lillian, were domiciled at 2701 East Cambria St., Philadelphia, and had a residence at 61st Street and Second Avenue in Avalon. The couple was convicted of voting fraudulently at the primary elections in Avalon in 1953 and 1954 and in the general election of 1953. They were fined $500 each.

The court held that Huberty and his wife, Mary, were domiciled at 5728 Colgate St., Philadelphia, and had a residence at 3718 Third Ave. in Avalon. The couple was convicted of voting fraudulently in Avalon at the primary elections in 1953 and 1954 and at the 1954 general election and fined $500 each.

All three couples also were convicted of voting falsely in the primary elections.

TEACHERS WON'T GET PAID JAN. 6

KULPMONT, Pa. — The supervising principal of Kulpmont schools said Monday the district will be unable to meet its Jan. 6 teachers' payroll unless state funds are forthcoming.

A. W. Ross, principal of the schools, said more than half the teachers are members of the American Federation of Teachers. He said this group has informed his office and the school board they do not intend to teach after Jan. 6 if their salaries are not paid.

Ross said the school district, which he characterized as "in financial difficulties even in good times," has reached its borrowing capacity of $40,000 with local banks. He said without state funds the district will be unable to meet the payroll.

Last month's salaries, he said, were met only because Marion Heights, a community which is part of the district, was able to borrow $10,000 which was pooled into a fund to meet the payroll.

Pitt end Joe Walton caught only 12 passes during the season but eight of them were for touchdowns, a new Panther record.

ROANOKE, Va. — Detective Captain Kermit Allman wonders why so many people abandon bicycles.

"We've got so many that if you open the door to the storage room bikes fall out," Allman said. He said the cops are always happy when someone identifies a bike and takes it away.

QUADS WORK FOR LIVELY XMAS; HAVE SAD STORY

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—Christmas in the Fino household here won't be a dull affair if the Pappas quads—lets have anything to say about it.

The four youngsters whose father died less than a month ago already have joined with their sister and brother in setting the home of their aunt and uncle alive with Yuletide excitement as only kids can do.

Though they bring cheer—the story of their coming to this Northumberland County community is a sad one.

Father A Cancer Victim
Almost five years old, the quads, two boys and two girls, came here with their mother, Mrs. Harriet Pappas, from Baltimore where last month their father succumbed to cancer at the age of 33.

The inability to meet living expenses on a $200 a month social security check drove Mrs. Pappas and her brood into her sister's home here—Mrs. Raymond Fino.

The Pappas family, including an eight-month-old boy and a 18-month-old girl in addition to the quads, expect to spend the holidays with the Finos and then later move into a house in the Sunbury area.

Expenses Too Much
"My monthly mortgage payments on my Baltimore house amount to $70 and that and with other expenses is just too much for me," the 33-year-old mother of six said.

The Baltimore house was sold at cost to Mrs. Pappas by a Baltimore contractor shortly after the quads were born.

"Even at that, I just can't seem to make ends meet anymore," she explained. "So I'm going to return to Baltimore after the holidays and sell my house and then my sister and I will buy a house here and settle down."

Navy Veteran
Mrs. Pappas and her husband were born in Wilkes-Barre and moved to Baltimore where he took a job with the Bethlehem Steel Co. after leaving the Navy six years ago.

A veteran of several naval engagements in the South Pacific, her husband died last Nov. 19.

Mrs. Pappas said the children are too young to realize what the loss of their father means.

"But with such wonderful relatives as my sister and her husband, the kiddies will have the hurt eased quite a bit," she added.

What would quads like from Santa Claus?

The same as any other youngsters their ages: "A red fire engine for the boys and some dolls for the girls, please Mr. Santa," they said.

STEAL $25,000 CASH FROM HOME

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Two men Monday robbed and ransacked the country home of a Norristown scrap dealer. State police said the owner estimated the loot at $25,000 in cash and $10,000 in jewels.

The men escaped in a car after cutting the telephone wires leading from the home of Frank Puleo, located on Valley Forge Rd. (Rt. 422), five miles west of Norristown. State police said Puleo had left for his office Monday and his wife answered the front door. Two men told her they were delivering packages and she let them enter.

Ransack Every Room
One of the men then whipped out a gun, hit her over the head and then tied her to a chair in the basement. They ransacked every room. From a second floor bedroom they removed a small safe containing the cash and jewels, police said. In addition they took the woman's purse and a strong box.

After a half hour the woman freed herself and walked to the home of a son, 75 yards away. Her daughter-in-law, Lena Puleo, telephoned police.

State police said the robbers were described as two young white men wearing blue knit Navy-type caps. One was carrying a gun, the other a knife.

Milk Production Is Curbed By Cold

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Agriculture Department said Monday that November's cold weather brought a sharp decline in milk production and a slight drop in egg output compared with October.

November milk output at 466 million pounds, although 5 per cent above November of last year, was 7 per cent less than October, 1955, a federal-state survey showed.

Production of eggs in November totaled 372 million, one per cent below October but ahead of the November, 1954, output of 355 million eggs.

The distance from London to Bombay is 10,800 miles via the Cape of Good Hope and a little more than 6,300 miles via the Suez Canal.

Thousands Stage Protests In Jordan

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Several thousand demonstrators staged new protests in Amman Monday against Britain's proposal that Jordan join the Baghdad Alliance.

Security forces, who have been patrolling the streets since Sunday's riots in which one man was killed, did not interfere. Officials later reported the situation under control. Shops and schools were closed.

King Hussein Sunday night broadcast an appeal for calm as the Cabinet met to discuss the internal situation. Lt. Gen. John Glubb, chief of staff of the Arab Legion, attended.

Jordan's Prime Minister Hazza Majali Sunday received the Egyptian and Syrian envoys in Amman to outline his country's new policy toward Middle East alliances.

COLD WAVE TO SWEEP STATE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Intermittent snow across Pennsylvania Monday brought premature promise of a white Christmas.

In company with the snow flurries, the Weather Bureau issued a bulletin warning of a cold wave expected to sweep southeastward from the Northern Plains states and blanket Pennsylvania late Monday.

By Tuesday morning, the weatherman said, temperatures would be below zero over northern Pennsylvania with some areas experiencing temperatures as much as 5 to 10 below zero.

Roads Hazardous
Spasmodic snow fall was reported along virtually the entire Pennsylvania Turnpike with that highway and many other roads listed as hazardous.

Temperatures across the state ranged Monday morning from just below 20 above zero to the middle 30s.

Overcast skies and snow was the weather picture at Philadelphia while light snow fell at Pittsburgh. Generally speaking, the snow flurries were expected to give way to clearing skies and gusty winds

NORTH KOREAN CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet news agency Tass says Pak Huen Yu, former foreign minister of North Korea, has been sentenced to death for working to overthrow the Communist Korean government on American orders.

He was accused of establishing contact with an "American spy" as far back as 1919.

In a broadcast heard here, Tass said Pak was charged with entering North Korea in 1946 and seeking to disrupt the Communist revolutionary movement by "espionage, subversion, murder and terror."

Cite 1953 Purge
Pak once was reported sentenced to death during a 1953 purge in North Korea. Ten high officials were condemned then on charges of plotting an anti-Communist revolt with U.S. agents, but Soviet-relayed reports later suggested his name, heard in broadcasts, had been mistaken for that of a minor Red functionary named Pak Sung Won.

The non-Communist world never learned whether the 1953 purge sentences were carried out. Pak was named foreign minister Sept. 10, 1948. The first word that he had been removed came July 27, 1953, when Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov addressed a message to Lee Don Gen as foreign minister.

months later that Pak had fled to Japan and was in custody of American authorities. That report was never confirmed by U.S. officials.

Tass said Pak appeared before the North Korean Supreme Court Dec. 15 and pleaded guilty to all accusations.

Before crossing to North Korea in 1946, the broadcast said, Pak worked in South Korea ostensibly as secretary of the Communist party but really as "a traitor and provocateur, endeavoring to disrupt from inside the revolutionary movement in the country."

Officials added that because of their health, they might not be able to talk to newsmen on arrival.

Dr. Bradshaw went to China as a medical missionary for the Presbyterian Church about 1927 and has been there since except for a brief rest at home in the mid-30s and Army service in World War II. Mrs. Bradshaw is a registered nurse and dietitian.

The Bradshaws were arrested by the Chinese Reds in Kwangtung province in March 1951 and imprisoned in Canton. Later, because of her health, she was put under house arrest.

No charges were ever announced against the couple but presumably they were accused of spying, the usual charge against missionaries.

REDS FREEING MISSIONARIES IN RED CHINA
HONG KONG (AP)—U.S. Red Cross officials say they expect Dr. and Mrs. Homer V. Bradshaw, American missionaries being released by the Chinese Communists, to cross the Hong Kong border Tuesday.

A Red Cross spokesman in Washington said Sunday night the Chinese Red Cross had advised it would deliver the couple to U.S. authorities Monday but this apparently was Both Dr. and Mrs. Bradshaw, natives of Pittsburgh, Pa., have been reported in ill health. The Red Cross asked for a U. S. Air Force hospital plane to fly the couple to Manila for treatment after an overnight checkup at a hospital here.

Officials added that because of their health, they might not be able to talk to newsmen on arrival.

DAVID WATSON TURNS DOWN 2 "SHORT" CHECKS

HARRISBURG (AP) — David E. Watson, turpentine commissioner fired by Gov. Leader Dec. 6, Monday refused to accept a commission pay check as a legal step in opposing the governor's right to dismiss him.

Watson claimed two checks totaling $174 represent only 6 days pay in a period that normally should have covered 15 days. The check covers the week preceding the dismissal date.

"Although I have not yet filed my legal action contesting Gov. Leader's right to dismiss me before my term expires, I am returning this check as the first legal move in that contest," Watson said.

Removal "Illegal"

"Evidently the two checks are submitted me in the purported payment of the semi-monthly compensation due me," Watson said.

in a letter to James F. Torrance, commission secretary-treasurer. "Since these checks are in error, they are rejected and returned herewith," he added.

He contended in his letter that he is "duly constituted and active member of the commission" and said he regards the governor's "attempted removal" as being illegal.

Watson said the check should have included about $200 more if it were to cover the full pay period. The yearly salary for the post is $13,000.

Copies of the letter to Torrance were sent to the governor, Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen, Commission Chairman G. Franklin McSorley and Highway Secretary Joseph J. Lawler.

Watson has been in his office for work every day since Leader issued his dismissal order.

SAFFORD, ARIZ. (AP) — Leland Branch, who is in his 15th year of playing Santa Claus in the Safford stores, never has any trouble separating the good children from the bad.

For the rest of the year, Branch is the county juvenile probation officer.
